

HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT

Based on 2020-21 Undergraduate Catalog

HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT AS AN UNDERGRADUATE MAJOR

Being a human resource professional means playing a part in employees' lives and helping to shape an organization's future. Emphasis is placed on developing an intensive understanding of the concepts and techniques needed to acquire, develop and utilize an organization's human resources. Human resources management (HRM) graduates possess skills which provide them with a framework for pursuing human resource careers, as well as any career involving interpersonal interaction.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS FOR A BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT

To fulfill the requirements for the major in human resources management, students must be admitted to major standing, complete the core program, and complete a minimum of 26 credits, as specified below, with a grade of C or better in each major course.

In addition to the HRM courses, students will need to complete one of the following two options to satisfy the ORG3990 requirement.*

I - INTERNSHIP

a. Human Resources Management Experience Contract

- Student must receive HRM faculty adviser approval prior to beginning the work experience.
- For students wishing to substitute their current or recent work experience, the student must complete the contract for the appropriate job and schedule a meeting with the HRM major adviser for approval. You may have to provide additional support when using previous experience.
- The student's work experience must meet the minimum contact hours requirement (280 hours).

b. Exit Interview

- Upon completion of the internship or equivalent experience, the student must submit written answers to the specified exit interview questions to major adviser.
- Students must also have their internship supervisor submit a letter on company letterhead to the HRM major adviser stating the following: hours worked, time period and basic job duties.
- Upon documentation of the exit interview, written documentation of the completion of the requirement will be provided to the student and the Undergraduate Advising Office within two weeks.

II - PORTFOLIO PROJECT

Students can obtain information about this option from the HRM major adviser. Items must be new work representing an HRM skill set. Once student submits all required aspects of the project to the HRM major adviser, written documentation of the completion of the requirement will be provided to the student and the Undergraduate Advising Office within two weeks.
