IMPORTANT NOTES:

Admission to the Bachelor of Social Work program is selective and admission is not guaranteed. Students are initially admitted as Pre-Social Work majors.

Admission is based on the following criteria: A minimum GPA of 2.8; completion of the pre-core courses with the required GPA; experience in the human services field (employment or volunteer work); two letters of reference (one from a supervisor in a volunteer or work capacity and one academic reference perferrably from your Intro SW professor); and a personal written statement.

Students must meet with the Social Work faculty adviser as soon as possible upon admission to Pre-Social Work to discuss program and admission requirements.

To remain in good academic standing while in the program, students must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.00 in the major courses (starting Fall 2015).
