

Faculty Development Workshop Series

200A Elliott Hall 12:00 – 1:30 p.m. Lunch provided.

Writing an Effective Teaching Grant Tuesday, February 13

Facilitated by Judy Ableser

- Every year, CETL offers up to five $3,000 grants to faculty to redesign their courses in a way that enhances excellence in teaching and learning. Grant work focuses on student success and includes a research emphasis on the scholarship of teaching and learning. Learn more about the application process and expectations.
- Information on the grant can be found at oakland.edu/cetl/resources
- Grant proposals due on March 26, 2018

Learning Communities Tuesday, March 13

Facilitated by Judy Ableser and LC Facilitators

- This year's Learning Community facilitators will share the results of their year's work and provide guidance to those interested in applying to lead a new Learning Community.
- Learn how to design a new Learning Community and submit a proposal.
- Proposals due on April 3, 2018

Overcoming Post-tenure and Mid-career Dissatisfaction: Regaining the Funk Tuesday, April 3

Facilitated by Adina Schneeweis

- What is post-tenure and mid-career dissatisfaction, also called the blues, despondence and PTDS?
- How to find support and negotiate balance
- How to celebrate yourself, plan ahead and think ahead

Register at oakland.edu/cetl/faculty-development/workshops