

How to use the online version of Something About the Author.

A link to the online version can be found on the ERL web page <http://wwwp.oakland.edu/erl/> behind the “Search Databases..” button.

If you are off campus, use the link listed in the A-Z list of Databases found on the Kresge Library web page. <http://library.oakland.edu/index.php> Click on Databases, select “S” from the alphabet, and scroll down to Something about the Author. You will need to log in with your net-id and password.

A screenshot of the Kresge Library website. On the left is a vertical navigation menu with a "Find" section containing links to Books, Articles, Databases (highlighted with a red arrow), Course Reserves, Course & Subject Guides, Tutorials, Collections, University Archives, Research Help, Services, and About. Below the menu is a library hours notice for August 28th and social media icons. The main content area has tabs for Articles, Databases, and Journals. The "Databases" tab is active, showing a "Databases A to Z" section with an alphabet of buttons. The letter "S" is highlighted with a red arrow. Below the alphabet are filters for Audio, Data, Images, Reference, and Video. A list of databases is shown below, including S&P NetAdvantage, SAE Digital Library, Science Citation Index, and Science Direct. A "Report an Error" button is in the top right of the database list area.
