

Oakland University
International Students and Scholars Office
International Service Award 2016-2017

** Nomination Application ****

Submit to: International Students and Scholars Office
328 O' Dowd Hall, Rochester, Michigan 48309-4482
Phone: (248) 370-3358, Fax: (248) 370-3351

Purpose:

To recognize an Oakland University faculty or staff member for outstanding international service within the United States or abroad in terms of teaching, research, administration, social action, or humanitarian relief.

Eligibility:

All Oakland University faculty or staff members are eligible, including administrative personnel.

Criteria:

Within the 21st century context of increasing globalization, this annual award will be made to an Oakland University employee who is actively advancing the cooperative international-ization of Oakland University. Candidates must be recognized for having made important contributions to the international education and public service functions of Oakland University. Nominees must show evidence of excellence and impact as representatives of Oakland University through teaching that includes international perspectives, promoting research and/or outreach of international dimensions, and/or serving an international community.

Applications are being accepted until Friday October 21st
Recipient of the award will be notified November 30th

The nominator must submit the following on behalf of a nominee:

- 1) Nomination Application form
- 2) Curriculum vitae or resume, as appropriate
- 3) Letter of recommendation, two pages or less, including how the candidate's contributions...
  - A. Reach beyond the expectations of the nominee's position at OU
  - B. Demonstrate collaboration with other faculty, staff, and students
  - C. Impact the international community at OU and beyond
  - D. Demonstrate sustained commitment to international activities
  - E. Are recognized beyond the primary unit of department, school, and college

Candidate name:

Position title:

Department:

Address:

Telephone:

Nominator name:

Position title:

Department:

Address:

Telephone:

1. List and describe the candidate's most outstanding contributions to scholarship, research, and other creative international service activities, which demonstrate a pioneering contribution and recognition outside of the Oakland University community. Please identify and assess the specific individual contributions of the nominee to any team efforts.
2. List and describe the candidate's most outstanding contributions to undergraduate and/or graduate education, not limited to classroom instruction and including student support, such as obtaining student grants or student career placement.
3. List and describe the candidate's most outstanding public service, defined as participation and service in the university groups, academic, professional, or humanitarian organizations, government agencies, and other collaborations, where such service calls up the knowledge, experience, and skills acquired in the candidate's field of scholarship or creative activity.