Radiologic technologists are responsible for administering ionizing radiation to patients for diagnostic or research purposes. The primary responsibility of the radiologic technologist is to integrate advanced radiographic techniques and positioning with applied knowledge of anatomy and physiology for the imaging of internal structures. Practitioners of radiologic technology must possess qualities such as good communication and a desire to work directly with patients.

TRANSFERRING WITH THE MICHIGAN TRANSFER AGREEMENT (MTA):

When choosing to complete MTA to satisfy General Education, please confirm the best courses to take to fulfill the agreement with your academic adviser at GRCC or at the GRCC MTA Approved Courses website. Completing MTA when following this major guide will satisfy OU's transferrable General Education requirements.

Additional course requirements for MTA when following this major guide (minimum 30 credit hours required for MTA):

EN 102
MTA Approved Social Science (PY 201 recommended)
MTA Approved Social Science
MTA Approved Humanities
MTA Approved Humanities

TRANSFERRING WITHOUT MTA:

If you intend to transfer without MTA, you can choose to complete additional coursework to fulfill OU's individual General Education categories instead. When following this major guide, please reference the GRCC General Education Transfer Guide for the GRCC courses that satisfy these specific OU General Education categories:

Please contact the School of Health Sciences Academic Advising office at 248-370-2369, email shs@oakland.edu, or visit their website for more information regarding your major program.

NOTES:

The Bachelor of Science in Radiologic Technology is accredited by the Joint Review Committee on Education in Radiologic Technology (JRCERT).

Students must have a minimum cumulative transfer GPA of 2.8 in order to be admitted to the Clinical Diagnostic Sciences curriculum, and admission into the internship in order to add any specializations. Acceptance into the internship programs is competitive and is based on grade point average, personal interview and letters of recommendation.

Oakland University will always honor the MACRAO transfer agreement and apply it to the General Education requirement the same as MTA.

OU's ECLIPSE program, a unique community-engaged leadership initiative, is one of only a few health-science specific leadership programs in the country.
