Announcements

Excellent work and a big congratulations to Whitney Dominick who successfully defended her dissertation: "The impact of dolphins on children's mental health: Longitudinal analyses of three interaction programs."

Victoria O’Connor was the winner of the Social Sciences’ best presentation award at the Oakland University Graduate Student Research Conference, and Yzar Wehbe was the winner of the Social Sciences’ best poster presentation. Great job!

Congratulations to Rachel James and Domenic Roberto who were the recipients of the Shelby Jane Seyburn Fall Travel Grant, which helped them travel to present at the Society of Personality and Social Psychology Conference.

Events

Apr 9th 4-6 PM: Victoria O’Connor and Dr. Kana Taku will present an online stats workshop, hosted by the Writing Center.

Publications

Mitchell, V.E., & Welling, L.L.M. (Accepted). Not all progestins are created equally: Considering unique progestins individually in psychobehavioral research. Adaptive Human Behavior and Physiology.

Dr. Lisa Welling and her lab meet remotely as the campus transitions to remote operations to practice safe social distancing during the COVID-19 pandemic.
Recent Presentations

Wehbe, Y. S. (2020, March 6). Could conspiratorial thinking have helped solve ancestral problems? Using evolutionary theory and error management theory to explore novel predictors of conspiracism and superstition. [Poster presentation]. Oakland University Graduate Student Research Conference, Rochester, MI.