

MA & MS in Interdisciplinary Studies

Program Path:

IDS Type: Unrestricted IDS

Program Type: Foundational IDS Program

Description: A Master of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies is a program of study with a diverse mix of courses, from methodological seminars to thematic courses, independent studies to internships. Foundational courses lead to a self-designed curriculum focused on a particular theme, problem, or mode of inquiry. Students will construct an innovative curriculum that crosses traditional disciplinary boundaries, often to answer a specific question or to address a theme of interest to the student. Graduates will gain an in-depth understanding of graduate-level research and current trends in interdisciplinary scholarship, as well as preparation for advancement in their chosen career field.
