Auditing courses

A formal audit option is available for students who wish to participate in a course on a non-graded basis. With written permission of the instructor, students may register to audit a course during the late registration period (schedule adjustment period after term begins) for each semester or session. Forms for auditing classes are available in Registrar Services, 100 O'Dowd Hall.

Audit registrations are governed by the following rules:

1. Regular tuition applies to all audited courses.
2. The registrar will assign the final grade of Z to all formal audits.
3. Changes of registration from audit to credit or from credit to audit will not be permitted after the late registration period has ended (schedule adjustment period after term begins).
4. Students who wish to audit courses must have been admitted to the university by the Office of Admissions and Orientation or Graduate Admissions.
5. Students whose entire registration for a semester or session consists of formal audits must register during late registration ONLY (schedule adjustment period after term begins).
