

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY™

Volunteer Board Overview

School of Health Sciences Board of Advocacy and Resource Development (BOARD)

Who We Are

- Established in September 2017
- 16 increasing to 20 members, providing leadership across diverse health/medical sectors and systems
- With affinities across five themes/departments in the School of Health Sciences (SHS)
 - Clinical and Diagnostic Sciences Physician Assistant - Medical Laboratory Science - Radiologic Technology
 - Human Movement Sciences Physical Therapy - Exercise Science - Orthotist and Prosthetist Assistant
 - Interdisciplinary Health Sciences Interdisciplinary Healthcare - Nutrition/Dietetics - Health Sciences
 - Public and Environmental Wellness Public Health - Environmental Health and Safety - Wellness and Health Promotion
 - Allied Health Sciences (BS degree completion) Health Leadership - Health Promotion - Allied Health fields

Our Purpose

- Mission: in purpose for Health
- Vision: Supporting transformative learning and innovative outcomes in health

Accomplishments & Goals

Accomplishments

- Healthology Symposium annual vision and support, by securing sponsorships and speakers, and encouraging participation from community and professional networks
- Established the HALL (Health Achievement Leadership Legacy) recognizing career accomplishments
- Providing faculty and program support, creating community partnerships and collaborations that enrich learning, participation and research
- 100% participation in BOARD giving

Goals

- To cultivate a community culture driving “upstream” population health through diversity thought-leadership, with focus on industry best-practices
- To connect and advocate for the SHS through board member networks and relationships to enhance visibility, opportunities, and fundraising
- Recruitment, engagement and vitality of BOARD membership

OAKLAND
UNIVERSITY™