

ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Based on 2020-21 Undergraduate Catalog

ENTREPRENEURSHIP AS A MINOR

The entrepreneurship minor teaches students how to start a business and successfully launch new ideas. Courses are designed so students can complete the minor rapidly while still maximizing their knowledge and skills. Oakland's entrepreneurship minor can complement any major, allowing students to pursue their primary passion while gaining valuable and practical knowledge and transferable skills.

BENEFITS OF CHOOSING AN ENTREPRENEURSHIP MINOR

- Gain additional understanding of business models
- Acquire leadership, managerial, administrative and problem-solving skills
- Emphasize your core competency to future employers

REQUIREMENTS FOR MINOR IN ENTREPRENEURSHIP

For business majors, the minor consists of a minimum of four courses. For non-business majors, the minor consists of a minimum of five courses.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

From initial brainstorming to commercialization, Ideas 2 Business (i2B) at Oakland University is a multifaceted program that helps OU students, staff and faculty members develop their entrepreneurial ideas. Oakland students can get hands-on experience in start-up ventures as a member of the i2B's Team Resource Group (TRG). TRG members help entrepreneurs implement various components of their business strategy.
