

Campus Behavior Workshop Series

behavior concerns

academic & behavioral misconduct

disability support services & mental health issues

campus shootings

12:00 p.m. -1:30 p.m.
200A Elliott Hall
(The Learning Studio)
- lunch provided -

Classroom Behavior Concerns

Wednesday, February 7, 2018

Judy Ableser

- Describe how to minimize behavior problems
- Identify ways to intervene with behavior problems
- Create a community of learners
- List how, when and from whom to seek help and intervention

Academic and Behavioral Misconduct

Wednesday, February 14, 2018

Nancy Schmitz

- Address effective ways to report and intervene with issues involving academic and behavioral misconduct
- Describe how to use "Report and Support," the university's system for reporting behavior concerns
- List ways to provide support, appropriate teaching or use of punitive interventions

Disability Support Services & Mental Health

Wednesday, February 28, 2018

Nancy Schmitz & Sarah Guadalupe

- List Disability Support Services (DSS) resources
- Describe the types of disabilities that DSS supports with a focus on mental health issues
- Identify "accommodations" faculty need to know to support students with disabilities
- Review Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Universal Design for Learning (UDL)

The Active Shooter on Campus

Wednesday, March 7, 2018

Chief Mark Gordon

- Recognize an active shooter situation
- Respond based on proximity and urgency
- Communicate with authorities