

ERL Bibliographies

The ER: has created a number of bibliographies, or book lists on topics that have been of interest for class assignments, displays, seasons, or just for fun. These bibliographies are saved as .pdf files which can be viewed and downloaded by anyone interested for free. To find them, go to the ERL home page – www.Oakland.edu/erl - and look in the left-hand menu under Curriculum Resources. The first drop-down menu will lead to the page of bibliographies. They are listed alphabetically by title, and each entry provides you with the ERL call number, and the publication information about the individual books or resources.

Welcome to the Educational Resources Lab (ERL) in Pawley Hall. The ERL provides resources and services that support the curriculum needs of Oakland University's School of Education and Human Services. We also support the scholarly activity, to whatever degree possible, of the entire university community. And finally, the ERL strives to make ERL resources available to the community at large as long as it does not interfere with the primary mission.
