As a transfer student moving toward enrollment at Oakland University, please review the following steps. If you have any questions about your transition, please contact Undergraduate Admissions at (800) OAK-UNIV or visit@oakland.edu.

- ENSURE THAT YOU HAVE FULFILLED ALL OBLIGATIONS TO YOUR PRIOR COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY INCLUDING:
  - Paying unpaid balances on your student account
  - Dropping any classes for which you registered for future semesters
  - Officially withdrawing from the school, if necessary

- ENSURE THAT YOU HAVE SENT OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS FROM ALL COLLEGES ATTENDED
  Transcripts should be sent directly from the issuing institution to Oakland University Undergraduate Admissions, North Foundation Hall, Room 101, 318 Meadow Brook Road, Rochester, MI 48309-4454.

- EXPECT AN OFFICIAL TRANSFER CREDIT EVALUATION (TCE) FROM ACADEMIC RECORDS 3–5 BUSINESS DAYS AFTER YOUR ADMISSION LETTER
  Review your TCE and prepare to discuss it with your academic adviser at orientation.

- MEMORIZE YOUR GRIZZLY ID NUMBER AND ACTIVATE YOUR OU EMAIL ACCOUNT (NETID)
  Your NetID is the gateway to all things OU: registering for orientation, accepting scholarships, signing up for housing and accessing your email account. Refer to the acceptance letter sent to you from Undergraduate Admissions for your Grizzly ID or visit oakland.edu/activate to learn more.

- BEGIN TRANSFER STUDENT ORIENTATION
  As a new student, you may have a few questions about transitioning to life at Oakland. Visit the Transfer Student Golden Grizzly Guide at oakland.edu/transfer-golden-grizzly-guide to get started.

  After taking some time to get to know OU, you will need to schedule your on-campus orientation. Visit oakland.edu/transfer-golden-grizzly-guide/attend-orientation/registration to sign up.

  In order to complete registration you will have to log into the system using your NetID and password. See above for instructions on how to set this up.

  For questions about orientation, contact Orientation and New Student Programs at (248) 370-GOLD or gold@oakland.edu.

- APPLY FOR HOUSING AT OAKLAND.EDU/HOUSING
  - Must be enrolled in a minimum of one credit hour per semester
  - New students should submit a housing contract as soon as possible after March 1 (for the fall semester) or after November 1 (for the winter semester)
  - Housing contracts are available at oakland.edu/housing/apply

- MAKE AN APPOINTMENT WITH DISABILITY SUPPORT SERVICES FOR ACCOMMODATIONS (if applicable)
  - For an appointment, call (248) 370-3266 or email dss@oakland.edu
  - Make an appointment as soon as possible, ideally a minimum of six weeks before services are required.

- CONSIDER YOUR FINANCIAL PLANS
  A. Apply for financial assistance by filing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid beginning October 1
    - Create an FSA ID at fsaid.ed.gov (student and one parent in the household, when applicable)
    - Complete the FAFSA at fafsa.gov
    - Add Oakland University’s school code: 002307
    - Visit oakland.edu/financialservices/apply-for-aid for more information and instructions

  B. Consider other scholarship opportunities
    - oakland.edu/financialservices/undergrad, click on the Private Aid tab for more resources
    - fastweb.com
    - GoodCall.com
    - CollegeBoard.org
    - michigan.gov/mistudentaid

  C. Visit mysail.oakland.edu regularly
    - Check your OU email for communications from Student Financial Services
    - Check your financial aid awards and requirements
    - Access your eBill
    - Create Proxy (MySAIL) and Authorized User (eBill) access for parents, spouses and others

  D. Learn about OU’s payment plan at oakland.edu/paymentplan

  E. Visit Oakland’s Student Financial Services at oakland.edu/financialservices

- CHECK OUT FREE ACADEMIC AND SUPPORT SERVICES

GRIZZ TERMINOLOGY

Academic Adviser
Academic advisers assist you in following your academic program so that you make progress toward your degree. Academic advising is an ongoing partnership between you and your adviser, who will empower you to plan for your academic success. Advisers help you with both the “here and now” as well as life after graduation.

Admissions Adviser
Admissions advisers can assist you through the application and admission process, as well as speak about OU’s academic merit scholarships.

AP
Advanced Placement; College-level courses offered in high school, which allow you to take AP exams. Certain AP exam scores may then allow OU to award course credit or exemption.

Catalog
The OU Undergraduate Catalog provides detailed, up-to-date information about OU’s academic programs, including course descriptions and degree requirements. The catalog can be found online at catalog.oakland.edu.

CLEP
College-level Examination Program; CLEP allows you to take exams for college credit, which may satisfy OU requirements for majors within a specific department.

Exploratory Requirement
The College of Arts and Sciences exploratory requirement provides you with a depth and breadth in multi- and interdisciplinary knowledge needed in today’s complex world. Through concentrated intellectual engagement in disciplines outside your major, this requirement offers expanded horizons and progressive challenges to more fully develop the scope of your understanding, abilities and accomplishments.

Faculty Adviser
Each department in the College of Arts and Sciences has faculty advisers who students should also visit. If you have a question about a particular program, you can seek out the faculty adviser in that department.

FAFSA
Free Application for Federal Student Aid; For financial aid consideration, complete the FAFSA as soon as possible after January 1 of the academic year you plan to attend OU.

FERPA
Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act; The FERPA of 1974, also known as the Buckley Amendment, provides an OU student with the right to inspect and review his/her educational record and, with certain exceptions, to limit disclosure of information from that record.

Gen. Ed.
General Education; General Education is the basis of your undergraduate education and is a requirement for all majors. This is the core body of knowledge that all students study, setting the groundwork for improved critical skills and enriching opportunities upon graduation. The three-part structure complements every major, giving you a well-balanced, refined education.

Graduate
Graduate students are those pursuing a master’s degree or higher, after they earned their bachelor’s degree.

IB
International Baccalaureate; the International Baccalaureate Programme offers an engaging and challenging curriculum that encourages critical thinking, intercultural understanding and respect. The IB Programme allows you to take IB exams, and certain IB exam scores may then allow OU to award course credit or exemption.

MTA
Michigan Transfer Agreement; Oakland University participates in the MTA, which allows you to satisfy the university’s general education requirements at a Michigan community college, with the exception of a writing intensive course in the major and a capstone course. In addition, you must either transfer in a course for the knowledge applications requirement or take a course at Oakland University.

MySAIL
Your student portal which allows you to access course registration and your course schedule, financial aid and eBill information, and much more.

The OC

Prerequisite
Certain courses require prerequisites, or courses you must complete first as a condition of enrollment. Some prerequisites may be taken at the community college to satisfy OU requirements.

TEW: Transfer Equivalency Worksheet
Transfer students will receive a preliminary evaluation of coursework completed at other institutions by mail within a few weeks of admission. This worksheet shows the total number of credits awarded for each institution as well as how those credits apply to degree requirements. Transfer credit will be posted to your academic record after admission to Oakland University and upon receipt of an official transcript sent directly from the previous institution(s).

Transfer Student
You’re considered a transfer student once you’ve completed any coursework at a college or university after high school. If you’re transferring with 24 or more credits, OU will only consider you for admission based on your college-level work. If you have less than 24 credits at the time of admission, we will also require your final high school transcript.

Transfer Student Adviser
The Transfer Student Adviser assists you in all aspects of the transfer process and can refer you to appropriate faculty, departmental offices and support services.

Undergraduate
Undergraduate students are those pursuing a bachelor’s degree, who take courses at the undergraduate level.
