

Save the Date

October 27th, 2017

Department of Human Development & Child Studies at Oakland University Presents a One-Day Conference:

Research to Practice: Evidence-Based Practices for Addressing Challenging Behavior, Teacher Well-Being, and Family Engagement in Early Childhood Settings

Keynote speaker: Walter Gilliam, PhD

Director of The Edward Zigler Center in Child Development and Social Policy & Associate Professor at the Yale University Child Study Center.

* Friday, October 27, 2017, 8am to 4pm

Oakland University, Golf Pavilion
464 Golf View Lane
Rochester, MI 48309-4477

- * Learn how to better support children with challenging behaviors in your classrooms
- * Share with other early childhood stakeholders
- * Join researchers, policy makers, and practitioners
- * Learn about cutting-edge research on challenging behavior in early childhood
- * Identify evidence-based and culturally responsive policy and practices ready for implementation

Co-sponsored by Oakland University School of Education and Human Services, HighScope Educational Research Foundation, Michigan Department of Education, and Oakland Schools

Registration Information to Come!

For Additional Information Contact: Donna Simons—dksearig@oakland.edu