

Oakland University
LGBTQA Community Advocacy Scholarship
Application Form

The Oakland University Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, and Ally Employee Resource Group (LGBTQA ERG) created this $1000 scholarship to support undergraduate students who have demonstrated leadership and service to the OU LGBTQA community. This award recognizes the strength and courage of undergraduate students who have volunteered their time and efforts to create a more informed and inclusive campus climate.

To apply for this one-year award, you must:

- ◆ Be a full-time undergraduate student.
- ◆ Have an established OU GPA of 3.0 or better
- ◆ Demonstrate evidence of a commitment to the LGBTQA community at OU, and/or in the larger community off campus.
- ◆ Submit an essay of 500 – 1000 words detailing your leadership and service in working on behalf of the LGBTQA community.
- ◆ Provide at least one letter of recommendation from a supervisor, professor, or administrator who oversaw your work in the community as evidence of your commitment to the LGBTQA community.

Oakland University
LGBTQA Community Advocacy Scholarship
Application Form

Essay: Please complete an essay of no fewer than 500 words, and no more than 1000 words, describing your interests and experiences working on behalf of the LGBTQA community. This essay should clearly describe your commitment to the LGBTQA community, underscored by leadership roles you have taken. This essay should include your involvement with the LGBTQA community on campus and may include any off campus experiences you have had in service to the larger LGBTQA community.

It is strongly recommended that you first type and edit your response in a blank MS Word document, then copy and paste into the field which will expand to fit your response. Be sure to complete page 3 of the application as well.
