 - i. Sarah Augustiniak, very active so far, she was approved last week, friendly, fantastic
 - ii. No discussion
 - iii. Unanimous approval
- B. CB 17-03, Ryan Fox
 - i. Mentioned this last week, to put this forward with opposition against actions by federal gov. Perilous world, but do not let fear control. (countries band, and this betrays reffugee stuff. Political and religious conflict is harmful to this. WE want our own psoption stadnign out against this. International and religious and ethic peoples need to be represented and make sure they feel safe.
 - a) Anders descrbed what a resolution does
 - b) Zack really likes this. There is a lot of support. Not a partisan issue. Action that is against our constitution. This is a ban against certain groups.
 - c) George, question: can we post this on social media
 - (1) Zack we already have, its pretty neutral. Did it on his personal stuff
 - (2) Follow up would it be a great idea to post socially about this as well
 - d) T Fox: Does it just say Muslim, does it technically say muslim
 - (1) Anders
 - e) Can we add gender expression as well, yes. Added as a friendly amendment
 - f) Naseem: after hynd sent out email, him and Victoria offered support and resources
 - g) R Fox: Bans specific nations, listed a few nations, not specifically muslim, but it is pretty targeted. Symbols are important no matter what

- h) Zack he said it wouldn't say specifically muslim, but in a separate statement stated that preferential treatment was given to Christians
- i) Sanders yielded
- j) Mishack yielded
- k) I said some awesome stuff
- l) Poppe: important to make our message and maintains our cred, and choose words carefully, ensure that its 100% factual.
- m) Anders: real facts: Iraq syris sudan iran somilia somilla and yemen. Religious language there is a section that is under part be under section 5 that the sec of homeland sec pritorizing religious persecution if it is a minority religion only. Gives a lot of waylay to tht sec to let Christian faiths. Majority religion in these countries are muslim.
