B. CB 17-03, Ryan Fox

- i. Legislator R Fox mentioned this last week, to put this resolution forward with because of by the federal government. We want our own position and stand out against this executive order. International, religious, and ethic people need to be represented and make sure they feel safe.
 - a) Vice President Engnell described what a resolution does, that this is a formal opinion given on behalf of the Congress and is approved, or disapproved, by the BOT
 - b) President Thomas is in major support of this resolution, mentioning that this is not a partisan issue. This is an action that is against our constitution. This is a ban against certain groups for religious reasons.
 - c) Mr. George asked if we can we post this on social media.
 - (1) President Thomas said that we already have, neutrally, saying he also did on his personal account.
 - d) Legislator T Fox asked if is did say Muslim, or does it imply.
 - (1) Vice President Engnell explained that the executive order mentions special treatment for Christians, so the implication is there.
 - e) Advisor Jurva asked if we can add gender expression as well.
 - (1) It was added as a friendly amendment

- f) Mr. Naseem said that after President Hynd sent out his email last week, Ms. Goldwater and he offered support and resources through social media.
 - g) Legislator R Fox stated that the ban lists specific nations that are majority Muslim. Symbols are important no matter what.
 - h) President Thomas said it didn't say specifically state Muslim, but in a separate statement stated that preferential treatment was given to Christians.
 - i) Legislator Sanders yielded
 - j) Ms. Mishack yielded
 - k) Ms. Kubinski spoke in favor of the resolution stating that OU was a diverse community and each student deserved to feel safe and supported, and this executive order was against the Constitution.
 - l) Legislator Poppe said that it is important to make our message and maintain our credibility, and choose our words carefully, and to ensure that they are factual.
 - m) Vice President Engnell said that the real facts are that there is a section s under part be under Section 5 Homeland Security prioritizing people who have been affected by religious persecution, if it is a minority religion only. Gives a lot of waylay in that section to let Christian faiths be prioritized since the majority religion in these countries are Muslim.
 - n) No further comments, this is the first reading.
