EXHIBIT D: Risk Management Approved
Insurance Requirement Waived

- Independent Musicians, Composers, Performers, Choreographers, Comedians and other Guest Performers with little if any equipment, Keynote Speakers, Work Shop Facilitators
  NOTE: Large-scale events (200 or more) may require insurance review
- Biological Sciences RNA Sampling (sampling cannot contain any radioactive elements such as uranium, thorium and potassium) (added to Exhibit D - 10/2020)
- Classroom Guest Speakers, Lecturers, Panelist
- Caricature Artists, Henna Tattoo artists
- Clowns
- Consultants who provide guidance only (i.e. no technical or professional licensure required)
- Desktop software [purchase must be supported by UTS] (added to Exhibit D 10/2020)
- Disc Jockey's (DJ's)
- Event Coordinators
- Florists
- Independent Editors, Freelancers
- Interior Decorators
- Photographers, Videographers
- Purchases made for resale (i.e. Golf and Learning Center merchandise) (added to Exhibit D-12/2020)
- Purchase of equipment from a manufacturer representative (added to Exhibit D - 4/7/2021)

Note: Insurance waivers are not a release of liability, and the service provider/vendor may still be responsible for losses, including claims and lawsuits arising out of or caused by the goods or services that are provided to the University.