

Oakland University
Environmental Health and Safety Minor Authorization
2015-16

This form is to be used to plan a program for a minor in Environmental Health and Safety. This minor is available to complement majors in the School of Health Sciences or in other programs at the University. A minimum course grade of 2.0 is required in all EHS courses applied to the minor.

This minor is also designed to support the Master of Science degree in Safety Management offered by the School of Health Sciences.

Student _____ Grizzly Number _____
OU Email Address _____ Phone _____
Minor Sought Environmental Health and Safety

Oakland University courses required for the minor:

Dept/Course #	Title	Credits
EHS 100	Introduction to Environmental Health and Safety	1
EHS 141	Quantitative Methods for Environmental Health and Safety	4
EHS 225	Environmental Health and Safety Training Methods	3
EHS 235	Occupational Safety & Health Standards	3
EHS 331	Environmental Health and Safety Engineering & Technology	3
EHS 332	Environmental Health and Safety Administration & Programs	3
EHS 335	Fundamentals of Occupational Hygiene (pre-reqs CHM 201, EHS 141, and PHY 120 or PHY 101)	3
EHS 441	Accident/Incident Investigation & Analysis (pre-req EHS 332 or instr permission)	3
EHS 442	Construction Safety	3
	Final total credits	26

Signature of student _____ Date _____

Adviser signature _____ Date _____

*Note: An internship is recommended to enhance job placement. The internship may be taken for credit or not for credit basis. If taken for credit, the student must register for EHS 499 Environmental Health and Safety Capstone Course Internship (4 credits).

Complete this form and return to the School of Health Sciences – Undergraduate Academic Advising office, 3070 Human Health Building or fax: 248-364-8657.