The University pays 95% of the lowest cost HMO amount for the Individual Contract employee and their covered dependents. Employee pays any excess for other options. Eligible employees may enroll in this plan within thirty (30) days of employment or during an open enrollment period. Medical insurance is effective the 1st of the month following thirty (30) days of employment.

Dental Insurance: Delta Dental insurance is available at no cost for Individual Contract employees working a minimum of twenty (20) hours per week employees and their covered Dependents. The dental plan is a comprehensive plan that covers preventive, basic, major and orthodontic benefits for the entire family. Annual benefit is $1,000 per covered person. Orthodontic benefit is $1,500 lifetime per eligible dependent. Eligible employees may enroll in this plan within thirty (30) days of employment or during an open enrollment period. Dental insurance is effective the 1st of the month following thirty (30) days of employment.

Optical Insurance: Optical Insurance is provided by Oakland University, at no cost to Individual Contract employees who are scheduled to work a minimum of twenty (20) hours per week and their covered dependents. Coverage is available through Davis Vision or Blue Cross/Blue Shield Vision. This benefit provides for an eye examination, with lenses if needed, and new frames. Eligible employees may enroll in this plan within thirty (30) days of employment or during an open enrollment period. Optical insurance is effective the 1st of the month following thirty (30) days of employment.
Life Insurance: Oakland University provides Individual Contract employees who are scheduled to work a minimum of twenty (20) hours per week with term life insurance in an amount equal to one (1) times their annual base salary, subject to age reductions starting at age sixty-five (65). Oakland University also offers additional life insurance coverage that is optional with a premium that is paid by the employee. Life insurance is effective the 1st of the month following thirty (30) days of employment.

Collective Life Insurance: The University provides the full-time Individual Contract employees with decreasing term life insurance. The dollar value of this coverage is determined by the age of the insured and decreases as age advances. Coverage ceases at age seventy (70). Premiums for this coverage are fully paid by the University, but an application is required within thirty (30) days following employment. Collective Life Insurance is effective the 1st of the month following thirty (30) days of employment.

AD & D Insurance: Individual Contract employees who are scheduled to work a minimum of twenty (20) hours per week and their dependents may elect to purchase accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D) insurance through Aetna. All premiums for such additional insurance coverage will be paid by the employee. An application must be completed within thirty (30) days of employment or during an open enrollment period. AD&D is effective the 1st of the month following thirty (30) days of employment.

Holidays: The following holidays are observed: New Year’s Day, Memorial Day; Independence Day; Labor Day; Thanksgiving Day and the day after; Christmas Eve and Christmas Day; and New Year’s Eve; and the “work days” between Christmas Day and New Year’s Day.

Long Term Disability: A long-term disability plan is provided for all Individual Contract employees who are scheduled to work a minimum of thirty (30) hours per week. Long Term Disability insurance (LTD) is effective the 1st of the month following thirty (30) days of employment. After six (6) months of total disability the plan provides a monthly benefit of 60% of your base monthly earnings or up to a maximum monthly benefit of $10,000. While you are receiving disability benefits, reduced university contributions will be made to your existing Employer Sponsored Retirement Plan for you. However, you must have been a participant in the plan at the start of disability. Premiums for this coverage will be paid by the University.

Multiple Option Retirement: Oakland University provides all Individual Contract employees the option of participating in the Multiple Option Retirement Program. Part-time employees working 30-39 hours per week must wait three (3) years. If Individual Contract employees fail to enroll when first eligible, they may enroll at any time thereafter, but participation cannot be made retroactive. Two tax-deferred, defined contribution retirement plans are currently available: TIAA-CREF and Fidelity. Oakland University contributes 14% of base salary on a monthly basis for participating Individual Contracts. The University provides Individual Contracts the option of investing, at their expense, in supplemental retirement tax deferred vehicles.
Retiree Health Care:

Early Retirement
A retiree with twenty-five (25) years of full-time service who has not attained age sixty-two (62) may elect to continue group hospital-medical coverage at her/his expense by making advance arrangements with the Benefit and Compensation Services Office. Upon attainment of age sixty-two (62), and until age sixty-five (65) the retiree would then become eligible for premium payments to be paid by the University, as long as funding is available.

Medicare Complementary Coverage
Upon age sixty-five (65), Individual Contract employees hired prior to July 1, 2006 and who meet the retirement eligibility requirements will receive a partial contribution from the university toward the cost of Medicare complementary coverage.

Upon age sixty-five (65), Individual Contract employees hired on or after July 1, 2006 and you meet the retirement eligibility requirements may elect to continue “access only” group hospital-medical coverage at her/his expense by making advance arrangements with the Benefit and Compensation Services Office.

Other Services:
Other available services may include use of the bookstore, payroll deduction (Met Law, InfoArmor, auto/home insurance, long term care, etc.), credit union services, golf course, Internet access, library privileges, parking, use of Recreation and Athletics Center. Some of these services may require an employee-paid fee.
