This total does not include living expenses for the periods when on-campus housing is closed, for any family members who will accompany the student, and all round-trip transportation expenses between the student's home country and Oakland University. The above fees and expenses are effective for the 2014-15 academic year (July 1, 2014 – June 30, 2015). To estimate expenses for an academic year beyond 2014-15, add an additional 10 percent of the total in order to cover anticipated increases. Tuition and expenses are subject to change at the discretion of Oakland University.
