

NOVEMBER 2023
NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

All events free and open to the public!

Sponsored by: The Native American Advisory Committee, Oakland University Credit Union, School of Engineering and Computer Science, Department of English, Women and Gender Studies Program, Department of Writing and Rhetoric, Department of Art and Art History, Department of Communication, Journalism, and Public Relations, School of Health Sciences

Thurs Nov 2, 5:30-6:30pm

Native Seed Stories in Michigan: Food Sovereignty from the Ground Up panel

Featuring Shiloh Maples (Ojibwe/Odawa), Jacob Schott (Mohawk), Kirsten Kirby-Shoote (Tlingit)

Ambassador Rooms, Oakland Center

In-person & Zoom

Zoom Registration Link

Tues Nov 14, 6:00-7:30pm

"Earth Based Reconciliation: The Role of Indigenous Laws and Knowledge" with Deborah McGregor (Anishinaabe)

VIRTUAL EVENT

Zoom Registration Link

Wed Nov 15, 4:00-6:00pm

Screening of Warrior Women film & panel discussion with local Indigenous environmental activists

Banquet Rm B, Oakland Center

Fri Nov 17, 4:00-5:00pm

Diane Wilson (Dakota), Author of The Seed Keeper, Reading

Banquet Rm B, Oakland Center